Everybody knows, but no one's saying nothin'
Why am I the last to know?
I saw your eyes tonight
They gave me a look that chilled me to my bones

And I heard that someone else was loving you
The way that I used to, the way that I used to.
Baby, baby tell me how you got off beat?
Maybe, maybe it's the pills that taste so sweet
Tell me, tell me something I've never heard
And I'll show you how to get, get hurt

Nothing seemed so real
Than the way and the things that you made me feel
You made me feel
I saw through your lies
I should've known better
Because you've done this once before

And I heard that someone else was loving you
The way that I used to, the way that I used to.
Baby, baby tell me how you got off beat?
Maybe, maybe it's the pills that taste so sweet
Tell me, tell me something I've never heard
And I'll show you how to get, get hurt

WHOO!

Baby, baby tell me how you got off beat?
Maybe, maybe it's the pills that taste so sweet
Tell me, tell me something I've never heard
And I'll show you how to get, get hurt

Baby, baby tell me how you got off beat?
Maybe, maybe it's the pills that taste so
Yeah they taste so sweet
Tell me, tell me something I've never heard
But I've heard it all
And I'll show you how to get, get hurt
