We can only watch and learn,
Home and fortunes light as burnt,
And when the ash is cold,
And the fading glow,
Don't let your pride feed the fire.
It was never within your control.

Never oh x4

Never oh oh x3

We can only watch and learn,
Home and fortunes light has burnt,
When the ash is cold,
And the fading glow,
Don't let your pride feed the fire.
It was never within your control,
Control,
Control,
Control.

Longing,
Makes the day seem twice as long,
Like and endless summer haze,
We were wandering,
Hearts without home,
Searching for a place.
Ohh roaming,
Going on without a plan,
Yeah,
Never looking back,
Aimlessly, aimlessly,
Devoted, devoted to the moment,
Devoted, devoted to the moment.
Oh oh oh oh oh oh ohh.
