Ho, yeah
Coca, I can make you famous, ow
We live from Zip's in Harlem tonight
Two in the mornin'
(Come on)
Krillz
Yeah, yo, yo

He thinks he's A, she thinks she's VA
Singin' in the mirror they think it's easy
Blue Lamborghini 'cause you heard Jeezy
Yeah, your 'Block Is Hot' but you're not Weezy

First class flights, star for a night
Be like Russell, have a model for a wife
See Lorraine Schwartz, go and cop some ice
Hey, even if you're dumb you'll still be bright

Yeah, the red carpet, flashin' lights
Joan Rivers, shake face lookin' extra tight
Urbane leisure, lookin' next and right
And let me guess, man you probably havin' sex tonight

And you probably gon' give a rapper head tonight
And when your dress come off he see the cellulite
Then off you go, let the trumpets blow
Spotlight is off ya it's the end of the show
(Y'know)

Everybody wants to be famous
But the famous wants more to be left alone
'Cause no one really wants to go through these changes
Paparazzi snappin' pictures at your home

Congratulations
(Woo)
Baby, you're a star
(You hear that baby? You're a star, ha, ha, ha)
Congratulations, the world knows who you are
(The world knows you, at least for today)

Yo, yo
I wanna be like Diddy, I wanna run my city
A Billboard in Times Square, see that's me, yeah
Best rap album what I'm shootin' for every year
Pick a place player my name is heavy there

It's groupies everywhere and they all want me
Even the young ones so I need ID
Still ride hat low two deep in a two seat
When I flow through don't ever try to confuse me

I ain't tryin' to be rude so excuse me
Watch me two step in my brand new Louis'
Bounce, bounce, bounce on the track
Every girl wanna know when T.A. comin' back

I'm famous, I made it, successful
Now I'm less stressful, only eat the best food
If you work hard enough your dreams'll come true
A star could be me or a star could be you

Everybody wants to be famous
But the famous wants more to be left alone
'Cause no one really wants to go through these
changes
Paparazzi snappin' pictures at your home

Congratulations
(Woo)
Baby, you're a star
(You hear that baby? You're a star, ha, ha, ha)
Congratulations, the world knows who you are
(The world knows you, at least for today)

Yeah
Yo, too easy y'all, ha, ha, ha
Yo, ha, ha, ha

As we said I ain't a boss to not be lyin'
Now why you bitches labels got me drivin' [unverified]
Nigga, I'm in orbit, ball a whole bunch
You call that mortgage, I call that lunch

And I'm so gorgeous, your wife might hunch
And I ain't even gotta spike her punch
Won't lose the end even if I lose a friend
Pen the big hits, I don't even use a pen

He, he, I'm like Luther and them
I cheese hard, now they wanna shoot through my grin
But I got bulletproof cheeks

Bust off on her like she got bulletproof sheets

Ask B, rope for us
Peep the fee, boats are plush
And maybe I spoke too much
But if you want to win you gotta go through us

Everybody wants to be famous
But the famous wants more to be left alone
'Cause no one really wants to go through these
changes
Paparazzi snappin' pictures at your home

Congratulations
(Woo)
Baby, you're a star
(You hear that baby? You're a star, ha, ha, ha)
Congratulations, the world knows who you are
(The world knows you, at least for today)
