Darlin' won't you come run away with me
I've rubbed off my palms and I've worn out my knees
And I don't feel this place holds a lot for me
So darlin' won't you come run away with me

Darlin' won't you come run away with me
It's hard finding hope when you're lost at sea
And I want to belong but I'd rather be free
So darlin' won't you come run away with me

I was dumb I was foolin' around
Always searching for something I'd found
Now I know I could die and I'd be happy
So darlin' won't you come run away with me

Darlin' won't you come run away with me
I've burnt every bridge and I've walked every street
And I've started to question what happiness means
So darlin' won't you come run away with me

I was dumb I was foolin' around
Always searching for something I'd found
Now I know I could die and I'd be happy
So darlin' won't you come run away with me

Darlin' won't you come and retire with me
I'm done with this crowd and I'm done with this scene
And you're the only one who believes in me
So darlin' won't you come and retire with me
