Just like little children fight
This side's yours and that side's mine
Nothing more but in between Broken hearts and shattered dreams

We don't all live the same life
But we all sleep under the same sky
Now a change is gonna come
I can feel it in the wind today

It's a long, long road back from nowhere
We fight like hell sometimes, other days we don't care
It's a long, long road back from nowhere
A change is gonna come, I can feel it in the wind today

Everybody thinks they see
What is wrong with you and me
When we finally understand
Not one man has got the plan

We don't all live the same lives
But we all sleep under the same skies
Now a change is gonna come
I can feel it in the wind today

It's a long, long road back from nowhere
We fight like hell sometimes, other days we don't care
It's a long, long road back from nowhere
A change is gonna come, I can feel it in the wind today

Asking every child, woman and man
To join me here in the promised land

It's a long, long road back from nowhere
We fight like hell sometimes, other days we don't care,
no
It's a long, long road back from nowhere
A change is gonna come, I can feel it in the wind today

It's a long, long road back from nowhere
It's a long, long road back from nowhere
