If one kiss led to another, baby
I'm ready to forgive you, honey
There's a light that shines between us
And it's worth the crying, lady

I was fallin' on sharp stones then
And my bones were crackin' daily
No more weeping and lying now
And I'm holding you forever
And I'm holding you forever

Love, love, Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us

Love, love, Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us

Time they say, is the great healer
But I believe in chemicals, baby
When the waves come crashin' in
We are closer now than ever
We are closer now than ever

There was a cold space between us
Still we bridged that chasm, lady
Desire love and friendship
We are sanctified together
We are sanctified together

Love, love, Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us

Love, love, Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us

(Love love, Lord above)
Save us from that push and shove
(Love love, Lord above)
Save us from that push and shove
(Love love, Lord above)
Save us from that push and shove
(Love love, Lord above)
Save us from that push and shove
(Love love, Lord above)
(Love love, Lord above)
(Love love, Lord above)
Save us from that push and shove

Love love, Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us

Love love, Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us

Love
Love
Love
Love
