Morning desert sun, horizon
Rise above the sands of time
Mystic journey to Arcana
I travel starry spheres in trine

Sands of the dunes, dust of the bones
Swallow the trace of creatures left behind
Gods of the fire fall from the sky
Reaped all the fruit and plagued Earth dry

Distant vision, tempting waters
Fall to my knees, I'm going to drink it dry
Blazing desert sun reflection on the water
He caught my eye, up in a tree laughing at me

Vulture of fear, why don't you go away?
You're mine one day
Spit out the sand, be on your way

Exodus ascend the plane
Exile this medium of bondage
Far beyond the myriads of crypts and pyramids
Beyond the harpy vultures guarding their tombs
Arcana awaits

Exodus ascend the plane
Exile this medium of bondage
Far beyond the the prophecy of tyrant guardians
Traject the esoteric sisters they are mythical
Na, na, na, na, na, Arcana awaits you

Oh Guardian, predestination calls
Silent wind I felt what you said
Soon I'm exhumed for consummation
He charmed my soul with his 'Book of the Dead'

He read, it said, ?Bear no children?
They will inhere the dormant fear in man
Sovereign the force more than emotion
It controls your destiny at hand

False guardian, I will compel

False as the fear of heaven and hell
I should have known
It's all a mirage just as well

The power of good
Will not be shown by conquering fear
Let it be known it's a constant resist
Until your transformation

Morning desert sun, horizon
Rise above the sands of time
Mystic journey to Arcana
I travel starry spheres in trine

Sands of the dunes, dust of the bones
Swallow the trace of creatures left behind
Gods of the fire fall from the sky
Reaped all the fruit and plagued Earth dry

Exodus ascend the plane
Exile this medium of bondage
Far beyond the myriads of crypts and pyramids
Beyond the harpy vultures guarding their tombs
Arcana awaits

Exodus ascend the plane
Exile this medium of bondage
Far beyond the the prophecy of tyrant guardians
Traject the esoteric sisters they are mythical
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, Arcana awaits you
