Morrigan you come again
Morgan La Fay, raven on my sill of frost far away from the sea of the setting sun Island of fire and albatross Taught so well magic merlin the wizard
Maiden of beauty dressed in rainbow
Come to me

Damon girl daughter of saul queen of the under world . . . she'll have us all Damon girl foul temptress of lust
Peasants to kings your heart surely turn to dust
Damian she's the mortal of man Lives in your dreams in darkness, reaches out her hand
Come to me

Fata Morgana . . . She will take you Hungry scarred harlot hunting another heart Morrigan fallen angel queen of magic Kneeling at the widows altar, temptress of my . . .

She's the widow of my dreams

Far beyond the realm of dream, your wildest dream Ascend to the plane, an imaginary game to play
Past the golden pillars of the lore to Lemuria Imagine your queen . . .
take her she's yours
Damian upon her throne mirrored mirage of your desire
Of my desire Passion slave, her life I gave Jump into her fire
