"Blueberry Hill"

I found my thrill
On blueberry hill
On blueberry hill
When I found you

The moon stood still
On blueberry hill
It lingered until
My dreams came true

The wind in the willow played
Love's sweet melody
But all of those vows you made
Were never to be

Though we're apart
You thought of me still
For you were my thrill
On blueberry hill

The wind in the willow played
Love's sweet melody
But all of those vows you made
Weren't only to be

Though we're apart
You thought of me still
For you were my thrill
On blueberry hill.

*Dave Bartholomew interview quote regarding 'Blueberry Hill';
'...we couldn't remember the bridge in the middle of the song.
Fats' brother-in-law, Harrison, an old time musician was our Bus driver as well as his manager. He gave us the words but We didn't get the right chord system in the bridge. Fats could Hardly get through it so Bunny took a scissor to the tape and put it together. It's a common practice now but that was a long time ago.
