Whoa, yes, it's me and I'm walking in the rain
I'm looking for my baby, her name is Ida Jane
And if she don't come back today
I'll give her prayers away

The sun is shining but it rained in my heart
Because Ida Jane has broken my heart
And if she don't come back today
I'll give her prayers away

I believe I'm losing, I'm losing my mind
Because Ida Jane, she can't be found
And if she don't come back today
I'll give her prayers away

The sun is shining but it's raining in my heart
Ever since me and Ida Jane have been apart
And if she don't come back today
I'll give her prayers away

Whoa, yes, it's me and I'm walking in the rain
I'm looking for my baby, her name is Ida Jane
And if she don't come back today
I'll give her prayers away
