I'm never uninvited I'm so happy
I go where I want I choose what I do
And there's always something new no talk
Of my intentions my relations are all That I need I never get bored and When I do nobody sees me at all I often travel light And don't you know oh haven't you heard you never be bored
When you're halfway 'round the world and this is Where the sun boards twenty seven years without a wind
This is where the sun boards pouring everywhere
But where I've been I go where the sun boards everyday everywhere
