And I know now
And you know as well
So we're not alone
Took this long to recognize
Took so long to analyze
Bring it round around again

I know we're at the end, it's a
Lonely road beyond conclusion
I know we've got friends who can
Help us understand the breach

And we won't tell
And they won't talk about it

As we go our separate ways
As we go our separate ways

I know Superman couldn't
Stop the rain from finding it's way in
I know heroes laugh at the
Dumb mistakes we make

I know we're at the end,
It's a lonely road beyond conclusion
I know we've got friends who can
Help us understand the breach
You understand that this is
Far beyond our reach,
Heaven help us

Help us find our way out

Find our way out
Help me find a way out
Tired of this, I'm tired of this

Can you get off your high horse
This is the end of the ride
Can you stop pretending,
I'm sick of this shit, acting like this,
Does it make you feel better?

It should make you feel better
Does it make you feel better?
Does it make you feel better?

I know Superman couldn't
Stop the rain from finding it's way in
I know heroes laugh at the
Dumb mistakes we make

I know we're at the end, it's a
Lonely road beyond conclusion
I know we've got friends who can
Help us understand the breach
You understand that this is
Far beyond our reach,
Heaven help us
Help us
Heaven help us
Help us
