Now we're at a crossroad.
And leave our memories so far behind.
What did we come from?
We stand with love.

We dance, we dance the whole night through and knee down for daybreak.
We are still here in this strange days, we are still here.
We cry, we cry the whole night through and get the new greed.
We are still here on this cold ground, we are still here.

We are just cowards who don't listen to a thing you say.
What is our progress?
We stand with love.
