This is my hard ship.
There's no way to get through it.
But I'll get over it.
Even If it's hard for me.
Broken nail and hoarse voice.
still crawling on the ground and I still can find a clue.
But it should be close by me.

I gotta escape from this dim world.
Its hard for me to live like myself.
Seeking something I want. Reaching out for it.
The lope bounce me tight just like a snake.

No matter what, I can't give up.

The door has been locked, I'll wrench it open.
It beats me what they did. That chance will still be waiting.
Take back my eyes. Just wanna live like myself

The days is useless.
The time is always changing.
I'd rather die than stay.
Everything depends on me.
Take it or leave it.
The story is always telling.
The story never ending.
It's not finished yet.

Hold on my eyes.
Get back my sight.
