Pictures of you modeling your new white dress
They found their way to my address
I got one letter from one really really hot chick
I was licking on the envelope where you had licked

Thought I'd tell you're hot
You know I like you a lot
And I love the card and pictures I got
You know I seek and I've sought
For a gal as smart as she's hot
Please be my Strawberry Debutante

I called you after you had just gone to bed Sorry, I woke you up But it's alright, she said You told me of books that I had never read You were telling me about your new job at Radio Shack Radio shack. . .

Thought I'd tell you're hot
You know I like you a lot
And I love the card and pictures I got
You know I seek and I've sought
For a gal as smart as she's hot
Please be my Strawberry Debutante
Debutant. . .

So how do I get an extensive vocabulary Just like you? You gotta [16x]

Thought I'd tell you're hot You know I like you a lot Please be my Strawberry Debutante. . .
