Shut up. I'm fed up with your banter.
So I don't wanna hear any of your fucking words.
Don't put your word in my way, in my future.
If it's great advice, I'll take it with thanks.

When I loose my way, I go back to my roots.
Remembering a friend's advice and the pain I left.
When I'm reduced by your slander, I choose a better way.

I don't wanna be depressed.
Just wanna go my way.

I've been mistake till now, So many time.
Each time I do, I learn so many things.
I get stronger, get smarter, get simpler.
I don't care what you said, what you did.
