The dudes and I were crackin' around
To check out the scene of our old downtown
We found some chicks that thought
They were better than us so we fell in love

We tried our best to talk to them
They said they were the Creme dela Creme
And said that we were nonsense
So we jumped to karate stance and said

"We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst
We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst"

The dudes and I were hanging out
In places we used to where rock was the sound

We found some chicks that thought
They were better than us so we fell in love

We tried our best to talk to them
They said they were the Creme dela Creme
And said that we were nonsense
So we jumped to karate stance and said

"We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst
We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst
Catalyst, catalyst, catalyst"

"We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst
We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst"

"We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst
We are not the nonsense
We are the catalyst"
