I don't believe
I'll find the love
Anywhere outside
I should find and awakin' the power
Deep inside of me
I should not wait for love
To catch me
Somewhere outside
And on some far better day
Passing by
I don't believe
I'll find the love
Anywhere outside
I should find and keep the power
Deep inside of me
For all that I hurt you
You're not angry
But your heart perceives it all
Oh I beg your heart
Let all the bitter things be falling down
I beg your heart
Please do believe it's true
I never meant any harm to you
I beg your heart
Please do believe it's true
I never meant any harm
To you
To you
To you
