"Let's run into the fresh air" I said
"and later go to a small cafe" there we talked about lovin' Love's the strongest poison, and the medicine of all than I crashed into his arms and tears rolled down, I cried and I said
see how that feeling comes and goes
see how that feeling comes and goes
see how that feeling comes and goes
now you want to leave me tell me one good reason why We got high on motion we got drunk on alcohol I gave him my warm body
then I crashed into his arms I cried
and I said
see how that feeling comes and goes
now you want to leave me
