good-bye revlon
I'm not a covergirl
I don't need you if I'm not of this world super model made out of plastacine why don't you tell me what you really mean you're losing points in a game that I wont play cuz I'm his girl
I'm an heir to his kingdom
I'm justified and purified in the clensing of his blood yes I'm his girl
and he's made me a princess and he calls me beautiful and I think that's enough ooo I know its enough heeeeeeeeeeeeeeeey
I know I may not have buns of steel but I know that his love for me is real I won't listen to you anymore I lost my keys right after I slammed the door I'm in his presence so I am set free cuz I'm his girl
I'm an heir to his kingdom
I'm justified and purified in the clensing of his blood
and he calls me beautiful and I think that's enough
