She
calls out
to you
From behind
sin's
doorway
Her 13 years have left her so calloused so diseased...
Oh
still she's begging
you
Like you wish your daughter would...
Half a world away
Betrayal
fills
her eyes
It's the sick of the unkind years...
And scars start to form
A tangled
web
of Shame
Across her bleeding, tortured flesh...

And you want more
to take her down with you,
beneath the crimson tide
Slip...silently...under...the...water (remember no pain) Lost in the rapture
You're running fast from the past But it's freeze framed...you can't see what's beyond.
Her voice keeps echoing...your name...you keep remembering.
The world so cold to you
You get what you gave
The world so cold it's true
When the red...turns...to...grey Chorus:

When she's on her knees...she's saying a prayer for me
And through the frenzied feed...she's saying a prayer for me
And though the waiting tide offered sanctuary...I know She's saying a prayer for me
She just needed...someone to love her...
She just needed a kind word...
Crawling, calling across your memories.
Torture you.
