I can see clearly
That he loves you dearly
Just by the way, he looks at you
But I've got news for you girl
I love you too

If heaven could send down, a guardian angel
To make him someone
You never knew
Then I would pray true, girl
Cause I love you too

If he ever, ever brakes your heart
Or even once, treats you unkind
One false move
And I'll steel you away
And your love, will be mine

But now every night
When I go to sleep
Can't tell you the hell, I'm going trough
I know he's making love to you girl
And I love you too

If he ever, ever brakes your heart
Or even once, treats you unkind
One false move
And I'll steel you away
And your love, will be mine

Now every night
When I go to sleep
Can't tell you the hell, I'm going trough
Cause I know he's making love to you girl
And I love you too

Well I've got news for you girl
I love you too
