Turn Off Your Mind

Listen to your heart for your god's sake, you'll move a mind
I'll answer all the prayers that your lips place, corrupt by the lies I Pull you in, let me pull you in so slow, a new religion in a cold where we both cope I'll take you to far just to let go, turn off your mind... mind ..mind... mind.....

This is the ti.....me,
This is the time to turn off your mi.....nd,
This is the time to turn off your mind,mind, let me show you with your eyes closed, mind, mind what our hearts both know, its the ti.....me
This is the time to turn off your mind
