it's too high to measure it's too great a treasure longer than forever its inconceivable

big enough to live in deep enough to swim in breathing out just to breathe in its overtaken my soul

how high
how deep
how great is your love for me its making my heart sing

chorus:
Your love
your perfect love has found me covers and surrounds me your love is better than life
Your love
loved me first and saved me rescued and it raised me

its coming down like rain its calling out my name its causing me to love the same unconditional

how high
how deep

chorus:
Your love
Your love

King of love be glorified your love has given me life
King of love be glorified x2

Your love
Your love
