"All I Ever Wanted"

Visit "All I Ever Wanted" on MotoLyrics.com

All you wanted, all you ever wanted
Has been taken, left here to rust
There's no reason, but always an answer
So it's time to bring it all back

Some find a way, some land short
The echoes fade from their calls
Someday we'll feel, that were saved

You won't find us
Walking alone
As we search till sunset
We are the wanted, the outlaws, the sons

Expectations, cries of a nation
We won't sit back, tasting the dirt
As we wander, crossing the border
We move further away from the heard

Some find a way, some land short
The echoes fade from their calls
Someday we'll feel, that were saved

You won't find us
Walking alone
As we search till sunset
We are the wanted, the outlaws, the sons

You'll discover one another
You'll discover one another
You'll discover one another
