She's always trying to work it out
Sitting in a parked car
Music on the stereo is blaring out
Shutting out the world

People always say
What you gonna do now
Are you gonna go far
Gonna follow your heart till it starts

She could never say why
Cause she's leaving tonight
She would never say why
Cause she's leaving

Jessie always wanted to get away
Drive across the border, head out to the lakes
Lie beside the water, blinded by the sun
Jessie are you gonna leave now
Are you gonna leave town

It's funny how she hesitates
She wonders why she still cares
Tomorrow seems so far away
This moment could be hers

People always say
What you gonna do now
Are you gonna go far
Gonna follow your heart till it starts

She could never say why
Cause she's leaving tonight
She would never say why
Cause she's leaving

Jessie always wanted to get away
Drive across the border, head out to the lakes
Lie beside the water, blinded by the sun
Jessie are you gonna leave now
Are you gonna leave town

Looking for the answer
She won't be the last one out
Trying to get a headstart
Find her way through the crowds
Right now

Jessie always wanted to get away
Drive across the border, head out to the lakes
Lie beside the water, blinded by the sun
Jessie don't leave it too long, too long now

Jessie always wanted to get away
Drive across the border, head out to the lakes
Lie beside the water, blinded by the sun
Jessie are you gonna leave town
