We queuing up the tills
Wishing for our lives to change
Just a piece of something new
A taste would keep us sane

Hypocrisy in every day
Drills a hole deep in our brains
Searching for a little hope
A rainbow when it rains

Sitting on an empty bench
Got these nails dug in my skin
Like a leopard with his kill
We're going under, slipping in

Under the water, don't think we'll recover
Twisted and broken, 10,000 leagues choking
Sinking deep under, don't think we'll recover
Day in day out

Stepping on a treadmill wheel
You must know how that can feel
Blows a fuse inside our minds
Watch the data as it wipes

Taste the bullshit on a plate
We just piss our lives away
Get the hell out while you can
We're going under, sinking in

Under the water, don't think we'll recover
Twisted and broken, 10,000 leagues choking
Sinking deep under, don't think we'll recover
Day in day out

We're going down, we're going down, we're going down

Taste a new amphetamine
Alcohol has sucked us in Introverted in our ways
Trapped inside this plastic skin

Now it rears it's ugly self
Feeds us full of selfish doubt
Got to keep ourselves afloat
We're going under, get me out

Under the water, don't think we'll recover
Twisted and broken, 10,000 leagues choking
Sinking deep under, don't think we'll recover
Day in day out

Under the water, don't think we'll recover
Twisted and broken, 10,000 leagues choking
Sinking deep under, don't think we'll recover
Day in day out
