Boy I've seen some better days
And my Old Man would always say to me
In your lifetime, I pray you never feel
This broken I got in me
And all those wishing stars
Hang out, where you are Won't save me
Chorus:
And anyone can be Hurt By Love
Anyone can see their heart strings come undone
You take the strong ones or weak ones just the same
When it comes down to love, sometimes it comes down to pain
And boy this crazy World of fear
Well, it just ain't worth the price of wasted years
Glimpse that golden dream and let it, fade-away
No, I can't pretend today
And I stumble in and out
This confidence and doubt
Now all I really know
Is anyone can be.....
(REPEAT CHORUS)
(REPEAT LAST VERSE)
(REPEAT CHORUS)
