So you think you've made it to the top
That doesn't mean you should stop
Don't lean back in your chair, don't lose your desire
Keep on tryin' to go even higher
Tweak your peak, it's a higher level you should seek
Your hairdo is a thing of wonder
I bet there's not many doorways you can walk under
But a little rinse could highlight your color
And a little more gel could build it even taller
Tweak your peak, it's a higher level you should seek
Tweak your peak, it's a higher level you should seek
Faster, louder, higher, brighter, longer
You can do more
Be transcendent, go beyond perfection
Take a risk to make a bigger score
Looks like you've pumped until you are quite buff
Those bulging biceps must be big enough
But are you sure that you're as stacked as you can get?
No? then go ahead, do another set
Tweak your peak, it's a higher level you should seek
