Masters of this house I bring an animated novel a Christmas comic all red and green a wondrous tale to glorify the season the most fantastic story that you've ever seen Every June 25th at the south pole Millions of penguins start to sing Leon, Leon the last and all the armies of the season of swindle plan a campaign to glorify greed Following their leader - the Anti-Claus they flock to the malls turning sharing into selling, giving into getting and caring into contempt
Only one thing stands in their way:
A superhero yet still a child who believes in the spirit and the glory an evergreen avenger in a suit of lights come to life again on winter nights
It's Yuleman - Druid defender
Yuleman - from the pagan past Yuleman - in ornamental armor
his limbs will lead the way

Yuleman fights the Anti-Claus
in the battle sparks will fly
Ring a bell on every corner
The Anti-Claus must die
His powers came from an accident at the lighting of the city's tree He was changing a bulb when they threw the switch zapping him with electricity
It's Yuleman - Druid defender
Yuleman - from the pagan past
his limbs will lead the way
Yuleman fights the Anti-Claus
in the battle sparks will fly
