"At Arm's Length"

You've met your match
Sounds like a superhero
He's just like you,
He's just like you
He's everything you are looking for
Oves your every move
Sleep next to him..
While I sleep alone
I'm just asking for honesty now
I need a reason to keep you away
A reason to keep you at arms length
I never should have let you back in
And now it's 3:17
As my alarm clock seems to read
This hate has nothing to do with you
I hate myself for letting it get this far once again
I could have prevented this harm
But living in sin,
It keeps us warm..
Keeps me warm
I'm just asking for honesty now
I need a reason to keep you away
A reason to keep you at arms length
I never should have let you back in
It's 3:17
As my alarm clock seems to read
Similar situation happened last year
Should have been fair warning
To keep you at arms length
To keep you at arms length
