Think I am starting to feel
Nerves are starting to heel
I've returned to my sense
I was so cold I could cry
Now, I'm usually high
Said goodbye to defenses

Don't take me down, it's almost perfect
Don't bring me down, no, not tonight
Don't take me down, don't confuse me
Don't bring me down, it's alright

You're overwhelmed
You're underpaid, you say life's hard
You want it made, it's all a stage
Just play your part, they say life's hard
If you get this message please disregard
You gotta know it's gonna get better

I dream and drive all the time
The road just twists and inclines
No one's there to direct me
So, what am I supposed to do?
Lay it down all on you?
I close me eyes to see clearly

Don't take me down, it's almost perfect
Don't bring me down, no, not tonight
Don't take me down, don't confuse me
Don't bring me down, it's alright

(Time)
Your troubles
(Time)
Your worries
(Time)
To make some time

(Time)
Ain't nothing
(Time)
But something

(Time)
That you can't find

You're overwhelmed
You're underpaid, you say life's hard
You want it made, it's all a stage
Just play your part, they say life's hard
If you get this message please disregard
You gotta know it's gonna get better
