She scrunches her toes
Under the covers so no one knows
Rosey red cheeks dissolved her tears
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend
Phone calls filled with lies
If you only knew how she sees
You In her eyes
Honestly you don't deserve her
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend
There's something about a girl
In her underwear that can
That can make you
Oh it can make you change your mind
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend..
She scrunches her toes
Under the covers so no-one knows
Rosey red cheeks dissolved her tears
Phone calls filled with lies
If you knew how she sees
You In her eyes
Honestly you don't deserve her
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend
There's something about a girl
In her underwear that can
That can make you

Oh it can make you change your mind
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend
I know what it takes
To live without regret
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend
You'll never know
What it means to be her friend..
Man: Maybe it is late, ya know I'll---I'll be honest with you, I had a really great time tonight, and uh.. I'd really love to kiss you, But I think that if I kiss you; we'll end up kissing on the couch and if we kissing on the couch chances are we'll kiss in the bedroom and if we kiss in the bedroom, th-that's the part I always rush into, and I just don't think it's a good idea to spend the night together
Woman: I wanna spend the night together.
Man: I have no problem with that.
