Love she's gone
Maybe too late
It was a problem for me.. yeah
It was a problem for you

Now she's gone
I think that's too late
It was a problem for me.. yeah
It was a problem for me

You may keep memories in your head
you may throw them too the well and still wishing you Romeo Who's promised to be there and never come
I don't think that's we amend for each other and everything life's good and I don't care
what's your way to the end

Now she's gone
Maybe too late
It was a problem for me.. yeah
It was a problem for you

Now she's gone
I'll go my new way
It was a problem for me.. yeah
It was a problem for me

You may keep, memories in your head
you may throw them too the well
Who's promised to be there and never come
I don't think that's we amend
for each other and everything
life's good and I don't care
what's your way to the end

You might say to me just hold me close and taste my love but I'm far away

Yes, she's smart and so leder always smiling ohh yes and me but even me and even god couldn't say yeah it was a true love at first sight

Memories in your head
you may throw them too the well
Who's promised to be there and never come
I don't think that's we amend
for each other and everything
life's good and I don't care
what's your way to the end...
