Gravy Fries and Dirty Lollipops (originally written as a letter to Joe. Not a word was changed)
Gravy fries
And dirty lollipops
I love the way that sounds
And everything else you said.
I read your letter
On sunday morning
In one of those "cheesequake-type"
Rest areas
Thatjersey is so famous for
On the border of Delaware
Too far away to turn back
And give you that kiss
That i was waiting for you to ask for
And that you deserved.
If only just for having lips like that.
If only you made one gesture
Or sat a little closer Touched my arm or Looked at me for longer
Than what's appropriate
I would have been all over you.
I guess my vibe was not
As powerful as i had thought it was Or you wouldn't have been able to Resist my charms.
I've listened to your tape a million times (okay, not that many, but a whole lot)
Over the past few days, actually it's in my tape player right now.
I wanted to hear what you
Sounded like in arizona.
Where it's warmer.
