Nothing's written in stone, ever
With you
Tell me what would it take to make up your mind?
Guess you'll settle for what you have before you ...
But baby either way, you know i'll be fine
When you lie awake at night do you imagine touching me?
Does it cut you like a knife when she says,
"I love you." and turns out the lights?
Do you fix up a ghost to hold all your secrets?
Tell me how much did it cost to eye the evidence in their dirty sheets?

(Chorus)

You get in my eyes, and i'm really surprised that you showed me in your heart that day And I can understand and it wasn't in my plans but you hit me like pepper spray
And I just don't know about you I just don't know about the things that you do and why you treat me this way
I let you burn deep inside, its like your so deep inside,
when you hit me like pepper spray

I can see through your look all over my skin
With a kiss and a rub it felt so nice, but yeah thats where the drumroll began I've been waiting all my life to find this kind of connection, when you get a little piece you pack your things so you can run back to your girl

(chorus)

When you hit me like pepper spray

((Outro - sorry dont know the lyrics...))

(Chorus)

When you hit me like pepper spray...
When you hit me like pepper spray...

When you hit me
