Take another photo for your book
Because I won't be there
Only you, and you alone can say
Those words that make it right
Those words that make it right

(You) You took it all away,
When you lied about that day
Now I'm the one inside
And you know I'll do your time
Cos I have no leg to stand on
You took it all

Take another photo for your book
Because I won't be there
Only you, and you alone can say
Those words that make it right
Those words that make it right

Take another photo for your book
Only you, and you alone can say
Words of truth,
Because I am behind bars for your mistakes
And you'll learn some day

Take another photo for your book
Because I won't be there
Only you, and you alone can say
Those words that make it right

Only you and no one else
Can say those priceless words
That will make it right
Can you make it right?

You deserve to be here, instead of me
I'll be waiting here, behind bars
