I'll take all that you've given
And stack it in a pile
Tie it to my heart and baby light up with a smile
Let it smoke (smoke)
Baby while I sleep outside ya gate
And let it smother me to death
With a sweet persistent weight
Because ya stranger than creation
Nothin but the best
Lunatic corrector babe we'll never take a left
You know my body's been committed
But my mind is on the prowl
These dreams are just beginning
And I can hear the sound

Because your head holds gold
Your heart holds diamonds
Wonder where the day went while your fallin towards
the floor
You know you're my main wonder
In and outta heaven
But your heart won't follow til you show it through the
door

Take the sleepin potion
Mix it with ya tea
And dig a hole inside me with an illustrated glee
Because the bees are wilder now
Wilder than before
There's nothin like tomorrow
There's nothin I adore
The girl with the dreams walked in and said goodnight
She's better like before now in the middle of the night
And though she's dazzlin and delightful
And crazy as a loon
Dream without a morrow's hope and heavy as a moon

Because your head holds gold
Your heart holds diamonds
Wonder where the day went while your fallin towards
the floor

You know you're my main wonder
In and outta heaven
But your heart won't follow til you show it through the

Let's go eat our own heads at the bottom on the world
With caucasian little sword skins I'm like a little girl
Your beady braided head
And when you super heavy rain
Well I'm ready for a Mai Tai Oh I'll do anything don't wake the bloody killers in the woods move all alone
You'll only get knocked over honey handed the throne
The spiney ones may tingle and the yellow ones are cute
And if you're here on Sunday morning well I guess I'll meet ya dad

Because your head holds gold
Your heart holds diamonds
Wonder where the day went while your fallin towards
the floor
You know you're my main wonder
In and outta heaven
But your heart won't follow til you show it through the
door

You know your head holds gold
Your heart holds diamonds
Wonder where the day went while your fallin towards
the floor
You know you're my main wonder
In and outta heaven
But your heart won't follow til you show it through the
door
