Well it's time to begin as the summer sets in.
It's the scene, you set for new lovers You play your part, Painting in a new start but each gate will open another June July and August said its probably hard to plan ahead.
June July and August said it's better to bask in eachother.

Gate keeper season wait for your nod.
Gate keep you held your breath, made the summer go on and on.

Well they tryed to stay in From the cold and the wind, making love, and making their dinner only to find that the love that they grew in the summer froze.
Febuary April said don't be fooled by that summer again Febuary April said That half of the year they will never be friends.

gate keeper seasons wait for your nod gate keeper you held your breath made the winter go on and on gate keeper
gate keeper
gate keeper season wait for you nod.
