I like my covers to be heavy
So I don't get cold when I sleep
My love affairs always seem unsteady
And I never go half-way when I weep

Take me anywhere
With you
Take me in your care
With you
Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you
I'm still true

Take on my spine and spit shine it
Pull on my heart and unwind it

Fold my wings back off my shoulderblades
And peel me

Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you

Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you
Take me anywhere
With you

Still true
