I didn't want the world to know
That sunlight bathed the golden glow
Loneliness is like a disease
Triggers off my sense of unease
I was lonely until I found the reason the reason was
Me, me
Oh, Penelope Tree

Why don't you just enter the night?
Why don't you just do what you like?
Loneliness and all that heartache
That's something I just can't take You've got your head on back to front
that's easy, so easy for me
Oh that's easy for me
You know that's easy for me
Oh, Penelope Tree

Hey tell me why are you so scared?
It's like the beginning go there
Gold mine trash seeks brave dark warrior
What are we doing
Why are we here
Why must we die?
Oh no no no
That's easy, so easy for me
Oh that's easy for me
You know that's easy for me
Oh, Penelope Tree
