You were born with a face that would let you get your way
you know you're much too fine and free, Ivory Yeah you had everything you wanted child, that is until the day
You've been dressed in a vest, every minute of your day
You walk into a room, stand in a lit shade

Is your timer too high for me, Ivory

Ivory

How does it feel to be so high
Ivory
How long how long will it take for you to cry
Ivory

I'm in need
Ivory
I'll touch your soul, might even touch your brain
Ivory

I know you can't see me
I know your blind
Come back come back and see
Ivory
So good to me
Ivory
