[Intro]

Don't know what day it is What's going on?
Is this real?
Oh no, no, no, no, no

[Verse One]

I woke up short of breath, but I've still got a long day
ahead of me
I don't know what day it is but tell me 'cause I gotta know who to be
Is this me up in the mirror? 'cause I thought it was somebody else
Well it's a realization, when you find out you don't even wanna look at yourself

[Chorus]

Where do I go?
What do I do?
Who do I turn to?
I'm losing my ground
Who am I now?
Where does it end?
How did it all begin?
I'm losing my ground

[Verse Two]

Well I hit my feet, it time to hit the streets
And get my life back together again
Well this place is all a masquerade
So tell me where in line can I cut in?
Downtown wandering aimlessly around and still I don't know what I'm tryin' to find
Well you could flash all the pretty lights in front of me, I still won't see the sign

[Chorus]

Where do I go?
What do I do?
Who do I turn to?
I'm losing my ground
Who am I now?

Where does it end?
How did it all begin?
I'm losing my ground

I'm losing my
I'm losing my
I'm losing my ground

Where do I go?
Why do I do this to myself?
I'm losin my
What do I do?
What do I do?
What do I do?

Don't wanna go back there
Where do I go
Don't wanna go back there
What do I do?
Who do I turn to?
I'm loosing my ground
Who am I now?
Where does it end?
How did it all begin?
I'm losing my ground
Ground
I'm losing my I'm losing my
I'm losing my ground
Oh
