One voice means more than you know
Remember that you have a say
It's your one chance to channel your hopes
Don't let this chance slip away

Cause everyone matters
It might seem like a whisper
Something no one else will hear
But is we're together
Truth grows louder and louder
Speak from your conscience, with nothing to fear

Never beat me
O-oh let one voice be heard
Let one voice be heard
Never beat me
Let your voice be heard

Women together, let one voice emerge
Sisters it's time for show
To honor every sacrifice
All the brave ones who've gone before
They've already paid the price
And everyone matters

It might seem like a whisper
Something no one else will hear
But is we're together
Truth grows louder and louder
Speak from your conscience, with nothing to fear

Never beat me
O-oh let one voice be heard
Let one voice be emerge
Never beat me
Let your voice be heard
Never beat me
Let one voice be emerge
Never beat me
Let your voice be heard
Cause everyone matters

It might seem like a whisper
When we're together
Till you learn you can walk
We can do better
Truth goes louder notes in a core
Notes in a core
