Your pedestal is falling down
Falling down, falling down
Your pedestal is falling down
Da, da, da, da, da, da

Record sales are on the mark
'Cause that's about the time the rumors start
Where all the people talking out their ass
Well, someone gotta school ya 'cause ya got no class

Well, I've paid my dues, I'm a seasoned dame
So why you gotta throw salt in my game
You hide behind the computer screens
So that you don't have to be seen
How could a person be so mean?

Who are you and what do you do?
That makes you think you are above me
But have you walked in my shoes

The pedestal, you put yourself on
Well, since I'm breaking it down now
It's gonna collapse and be gone, gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

Probably one of them tag a longs down
For the free T-shirt 'cause you're a hanger on
You think you got my figured out
Never met me have no clue what I'm about

Maybe I got things you wish you had
You need to stop the hate and get a pen and pad
I work around the clock, so fill your smoth up with a sock
And get you head up off your jock

Tell me who you are and what your background is?
Tell me how you're feelin' when you listen to this?

Who are you and what do you do?
That makes you think you are above me
But have you walked in my shoes

The pedestal, you put yourself on
Well, since I'm breaking it down now
It's gonna collapse and be gone, gone

Your pedestal is falling down
Falling down, falling down
Your pedestal is falling down
Dum, dum, dum, dum

Your pedestal is falling down
Falling down, falling down
Your pedestal is falling down
Da, da, da, da, da, da

Tell me who you are and what your background is?
Tell me how you're feelin' when you listen to this?
You think I don't see you on the Internet
I've read it, don't think I won't forget

Who are you and what do you do?
That makes you think you are above me
But have you walked in my shoes

The pedestal, you put yourself on
Well, since I'm breaking it down now
It's gonna collapse and be gone, gone

Who are you and what do you do?
That makes you think you are above me
But have you walked in my shoes

The pedestal, you put yourself on
Well, since I'm breaking it down now
It's gonna collapse and be gone, gone
