WHAT

[electric guitar starts]

uh uh

ah-huh

Give it to me now

[Verse 1:]

Oh Well ah, why do i keep pulling out the roots of my hair?

Im picking at my face, its obvious theres nothing there

Why do i keep biting on the edge of my chin

It feels so good to have a taste of what im crawling in.

I got to go, i got to lead the way

The chains of today, are pulling me even though i thought things over in my head on if i'd stay, it's another ticket to your next game

[Chorus:]

Wake up, wake up, now

Wake up, wake up

I'll still be leaving you today now

Shake up, shake up, now breakup breakup

i know your little plans (i know your little plans)

would you see me, when you stop winning

So Wake Up, Wake up now, Wake up, Wake up,

Cause i just got you back

[Verse 2:]

Why did you keep talking out two sides of your mouth

You didn't think i'd hear from people, hi your selling out

What did you think, making your deals that i couldn't keep up

Manipulative, Calculative, i bet you thought, i didn't know,i couldnt see,

The spade displayed, your plan for using me you'd better bet your counterfiet, its time to say good-night, its another reason to say Good-bye, good-bye, Buhbye

[Chorus]

Wake up, wake up, now

Wake up, wake up
I'll still be leaving you today now
Shake up, shake up, now breakup breakup
i know your little plans (i know your little plans)
would you see me, when you stop winning
So Wake Up, Wake up now, Wake up, Wake up,
Cause i just got you back

[Guitar]

The Coffee is brewing now...
That's for me pouring now ooh
Eyes open now I see,
All that you take from me-

[Guitar]

[Chorus]
Wake up, wake up now
Wake up, wake up
I'll still be leaving you today now
Shake up, shake up, now breakup breakup
i know your little plans
would you see me, when you stop winning
So Wake Up, Wake up now, Wake up, Wake up, i just got you back [fades out]
(Wake Up, Wake up now, Wake up, Wake up)
