(Dallas Frazier)

I refuse to hear the things
They say about you
I won't let my eyes behold
The things you do.

I don't want to see or hear
The things they whisper even if it's true
Even if it's true that you've
Been seen with someone new.

Nothing in this world
Could turn my love away from you
All the talk could never make me
Be ashamed of you even if it's true.

--- Instrumental ---

Even if it's true that you've
Been seen with someone new.

Nothing in this world
Could turn my love away from you
All the talk could never make me
Be ashamed of you even if it's true...
