(Jerry Foster - Bill Rice)

You hear the silence broken by an old familiar voice
Could it be your talkin' to the walls
You've tossed for just a moment and then you realized
That it's just a mem'ry callin' and that's all.

A day that last forever is nothin' but a moment
Compared to the night that's yet to come
For there's nothing quite as lonely
As a bed that's been slept in by one.

A day that last forever is nothin' but a moment
Compared to the night that's yet to come
For there's nothing quite as lonely
As a bed that's been slept in by one...
