Ramblin' rose ramblin' rose why you ramble no one knows Wild and wind blown that's how you've grown who can cling to a ramblin' rose

Ramble on ramble on when you're ramblin' days are gone
Who will love you with a love true when you're ramblin' days are gone

Ramblin' rose ramblin' rose why I want you heaven
knows
Though I love you with a love true but who can cling to a ramblin' rose

knows
Though I love you with a love true but who can cling to a
ramblin' rose
