In a little while she'll come to wake me just like always She'll lean down and sweetly press her lips on mine
And say good morning daddy good morning how I love this little girl of mine

Then we both sit at the table having coffee
She says mama put a lot of milk in mine Just like daddy's mama just like daddy's oh how I love
this little girl of mine

Then one day she'll grow up and be gone and she'll have a small one of her own But right now she's still my baby just like always

And I'm glad it's gonna be a long long time I'll hear good morning daddy good morning how I love
this little girl of mine
Oh how I love this little girl of mine
